“ I never knew Mrs. Desmond, but I read her obituary listing and wanted to say I'm sorry for your loss. It's obvious Mrs. Desmond was a very special and loved lady who will be missed. I know you are enjoying your hope to see her again. In dealing with death there are some scriptures that can be more comforting than others. These ones were especially comforting for me, and I hope they can help you as well. Psalms 37:11,29 Isaiah 25:8 John 5:28,29 John 11:25 Acts 24:15 Revelation 21:4

“ I did a lot of work for Dick & Norma Jean around their house. Meeting them was one of the best things that ever happened for me. They are two of the kindest hearted and most enjoyable people I have ever met. I will miss her dearly, but I have wonderful memories of our times together. Norma Jean once told me, "You and I think so much alike regarding life, religion and even politics." I loved them and wanted my wife to know them also. She became as attached as I was in a short order. God bless this family and comfort them is our prayer.

“ I am a member of The Woman's Club of Huntington, and I only knew Norma through several telephone conversations I had with her in recent years.

I found out that we had both belonged to the same church, Highlawn Baptist, but at different times. My husband and I belonged there from about 1983 to 2012 when we moved our membership to New Baptist.

I could tell from our conversations that Norma was a sweet spirited Christian, and I was blessed by our short talks together.

Our sympathy,

Charlea and Isabelle Bonecutter
