I wanted to send my sympathies to you and your family! I'm so sorry for your loss! I won't be able to pay my respects today because I'm in school! You were one of my most favorite supervisors because you treated everyone fairly and expected everyone to do their job! Love you Farley and just know I would have been there if I could have!

“ I'm very sorry I could not attend Pam's funeral services. The death angel came for Pam suddenly and we weren't ready to part with her. We know heaven has gained a beautiful angel. Pam was beautiful inside and out. She possessed the best qualities of life. She was a great and loving wife, mother, grandmother and dear friend. I admired her faith in Christ. She was a great example to those who loved her. I loved hearing her laugh and she did often. I loved her very much. She certainly will be sadly missed. Look forward to seeing her again in heaven where she is happy. Cling to your wonderful memories. Please know that you all will be in my continued prayers, Cheryl Salisbury Wroblewski

“ I apologize for not being able to be to Pam's services today, I had to work, but I want each of you to know that I am praying for you and keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers. Your mom has always been such a blessing in my life and I loved her very much. She will be greatly missed by the Farmdale family. I know this may sound like the usual words, but I sincerely mean this, if you need ANYTHING, please let me know! love you all, Diane Himes

“ I won't forget the unconditional kindness and warmth that she always showed me and my family at Farmdale when we still lived in the area. Without ever having met my new family, wife or infant child, Pam was an incredible blessing to our family. She custom made gifts for our newborn Sarah and mailed them all the way from WV while we are here in Philadelphia. I truly regret not ever being able to introduce my baby and wife to her due to the distance, as seeing my baby was something Pam always expressed a desire for. We love you Pam so much. You were and always will be a blessing to us and so many more. We offer our most sincere condolences to the entire Cash family for this huge loss. She was a candle shining so brightly and still does.

Pam what is there left to say, wish life had not gotten in the way of our visitation, and our grand plans to go to Memphis next year for Elvis week in August, now you got to see Elvis before me, I know how much you missed mother, now you and mother are together again, and one day I will join you both. We had so many years of love and friendship that will never be forgotten, please forgive me for not coming to visit for the very last time, I could not face the finality of your life, I was there in spirit and soul. I pray you are the happiest angel in heaven. Loved you so much
