“ My Mother and I wish the entire family a quick, complete recovery from the overwhelming grief of Pam's death. Pam was a trusted friend, whom I fully respected as a caring wife and a loving mother. Caring was her nature. Her existence gave me comfort in knowing we could talk. She wouldn't hesitate to speak her mind! :)

Bob, Todd, Chad - Be proud of the way each of you contributed to your relationships with Pam. She felt graced by being in your lives. In my conversations with Pam, her love for each of you was beyond doubt. She was proud of you, and you gifted her with a satisfying life, though it seems a short life to us!

She won't be forgotten as long as her friends and family remain. She left our world but lives in the comfort of being with the Trinity and their limitless love. That is all any of us can really hope for; knowing it can give you peace and healing.

Call me whenever you need a friend. I'll be in touch.

Remember that loving without an agenda is what living is all about.
