“ We remember the first time we met Paul, PJ. He wore a smile that was brilliant, along with a true spirit of kindness. He was one of those type of people that made you feel comfortable to be around and easy to talk with. He showed a true spirit of compassion and Christianity. Now he is enjoying his time with the Lord. Enjoy yourself PJ. I know you will.

“ Paul was a dear friend I met later in life, an individual I quickly became friends with as we shared a mutual desire to volunteer. I felt blessed that he thought enough to call from his hospital in Columbus... God bless you my short time friend ... Clyde Beal

“ PJ was a long time neighbor and friend and will be sadly missed by many of us. During our daily walks, my dog, Cody, would always look forward to getting to PJ's house to get a little extra attention and a pat on the head! Will miss seeing and talking to him.
