“ Lucila, what a beautiful ttubire to your Abuela! I will certainly be generous with my smiles today. I understand your sadness; I was very close to my grandmother who was full of smiles and laughter who died in 2001. She was my matron of honor in my wedding and held on to her life until she met my first baby, Maddie. She literally died the next day I still miss her and think of her every day. My heart is wrapped around you today!Darcy

“ I grew up in Harveytown and lived right across the street from Paul's grandmother. We used to sit on the bridge and goof off and hide from my dad. Paul often served as my big brother and it didn't hurt that I was dating his best friend. I will always have those memories of good and bad but Paul was always the calm in my life! Sadly missed!

“ Little brother, I miss you more than words can say, but I want to say thank you for the time we had for the love you gave unconditionally to all of us, for your hugs, your laughter, and your friendship. I am thankful that we never ever left each other with harsh words on our lips, we never left each other without a hug and a kiss, and I love you being said. I am thankful that you were not only my brother, but my friend. As a kids I watched over you, always trying to take care of you, and you allowed me to do it. I'm thankful for all the memories of playing, singing, goofing off, of concoctions we cooked that neither of us could eat, and the late nights watching old movies. I am thankful as adults we were friends, and you still allowed me to "mother" you at times and never got anoid, I'm thankful for the patience and love that you showed to me and my family at all times, and for being there for Randy, Matthew and Joseph to talk to and confide in. I love you and will miss you more than words can say. It's not fair you left so soon, but then again you always did things in your own time, guess this time you were just ready before the rest of us. Life will never be the same, but I promise I will see you again. Love you little one.

“ Tho I never seen you often over the adult years of our lives. Child hood memories never fade .Even as I hear your voice call certain peoples names as only you could do with that distinctive smile you always had on your face. I will now think of you even more knowing where you've gone ,and knowing you and my brother and so many others will await our arrival as I know Aunt Mary , Terry and a host of other family Oh how they must have rejoiced when you arrived .Look for me for I will be there to .I always Loved you Cuz .
