“ Philip was “The Big Deal” I had the great honor and privilege to know him as friend and brother in Christ and worship with him. It’s still unreal you are gone to the place beyond the sky. You love people as Christ loved them and for that we are grateful. The impact on this die of eternaty is immense. We will miss until we all reach that golden shore brother. Heaven gets sweeter and sweeter everyday!

Deeply shocked and saddened to hear that Phillip has left the building. What a beautiful , bright, intelligent and funny good human ! his compassion for people and critters , his originality and genuine smile melted his sardonic humor just a wee and wonderful bit. I considered him a true friend , although I have not got to see him often in the past year, and I will miss him for the rest of my life. How his beloved family is coping, Only God knows. Thank you God for sharing Phillip with us on this earth. Please comfort his many friends, his loving work companions in the business of helping vulnerable animals, and guide and protect the family he adored. Aminah

“ We went to church in Culver City California together. He was always a kind person and Even as a young teen would go out of his way to help people out. One time our Sunday school teacher got her purse stolen and he kept looking until one of us found it. I remember he found it in the boys restroom and he called me in there to help him gather all the items up that were in her purse. He will be greatly missed.

“ From the time he was a little boy, Phillip would bring home wounded animals to care for, tell stories of his "pack of horses" he had at the end of the property, (which were imaginary), and if an animal got out of it's pen, he could get them to follow him right back in and close the gate. He was blessed to have a job that was meant for him. Phillip was a gentle soul. He was loving and kind and was so blessed to find the love of his life in Alisha. He loved God with all his heart. Phillip loved people and found joy in helping those less fortunate. Phillip will be missed by all of us. We grieve, heaven smiles. No words can describe how much he will be missed. To my sweet little nephew, you are forever in my heart. Aunt Esther and Uncle Chuck Walden
