“ We are so sorry to hear of his passing. Randy was my neighbor and an awesome one at that! Always around to share an evening chat or to give advise on waxing my car. We have been really concerned about where he has been and just found that he had passed. Much love and prayers for his family

“ Randy was a good friend and brother in Christ and will be truly missed by us. He had a genuine concern for his fellow man. Memories of times passed will always be in our hearts for the times we shared together with him. We will see him again as we enter our heavenly home.
