“ above, even the sources Tom leitsd point to a degree of uncertainty around the extent and control of the trade. Indeed, the link Tom provides to a U.S. gov't report doesn't exactly inspire confidence in the claims when they are supported by the likes of Grassley and Helms whom themselves cite press reports about the drug trade. The NPR report seems to have as its main source a storekeeper in the U.S. who claims to have been in Km's inner circle at one time. Should I apologize for being dubious? As I said above, I don't doubt that all kinds of illegal activity goes on inside the North, some of it might even go on at the behest of a gov't desperately seeking foreign currency. But to say it's uncontroversial probably says more about the diplomatic stupidity of the DPRK as it does about the strength of the evidence.

“ We were deeply saddened to learn of "Doc's" passing. We shared many memories of great track and cross-country meets while Rod was coaching at Marshall, and we truly appreciated his support and friendship of so many athletes over the years. He was a wonderful person, positive and classy, and we will miss him.

“ Michele I am so very sad of the passing of your Dad. Please know that you and your family are in my prayers. I still remember the first time I met him from when you came to coach at Jefferson. I would look forward to seeing him at track meets and enjoyed his outgoing spirit for not only the sport of track, but for life in general. He truly was a dedicated man who always looked to help others. I pray that you, your mom, and family can find peace and know that he touched so many lives and truly did make a difference.

“ Doc I will truly miss your smile your humor your love for humanity but most of all your love for the young people of our country. As a fellow war vet I am honored to have known you and had the opportunity spend time with you. You were the wind that allowed a lot of wings to fly. I often told you that if this country had more people like you it would be even greater! I being a product of segregated North Carolina Never thought one of my best friends would be from West Virginia.Doc rest in peace my brother I am not sad because I know that you will be God's main starter. “ Mary Ann & Michele, Rick too. I would have loved to come over to visit this evening with you all, but you know how I felt about your Husband and Dad. I liked him from the first time that I saw him back in the 70's. Long time! From football to the 4-H, he was a mentor. Never did do the track part, but I know that he loved that too. You all take care & God Bless!! And, if you need anything at all, you know where I am at.

“ Doc was such a class act. I'll never forget a bit of negotiating advice when I was interviewing for a position at Ashland Oil. Upon reading his obit, I'd add that he was certainly a modest gentleman; I had no idea the breadth of his life experiences. A great man who will never be forgotten by thousands he affected during his years!
