

Ronald L. Crosbie

December 13, 1936 - September 9, 2010

Dr. Ronald L. Crosbie, 73 of Huntington died Thursday, September 9, 2010. He was born in McRoberts, KY. on December 13, 1936. Surviving are his wife of 45 years, Peggy, sons, Michael (Cindy) of Winter Garden, FL, Scott (K.C.) of Lexington, KY, and grandchildren Kirby, Ethan, Cate, Olivia, and Mac. He was extremely proud of his family and relished every accomplishment of his sons, daughter-in-laws and grandchildren. He was a retired Health, Physical Education and Recreations professor at Marshall University. Ronald completed his B.S. and Masters degrees at Eastern State University and later obtained a Doctorate in Education through his studies and research at Temple University, Indiana University, and West Virginia University. He was keenly interested in providing educational programming for special needs students. Governor Jay Rockefeller honored Ronald with the Distinguished West Virginian Award based on dedication and work with those children. He was a retired United States Army Captain (Inf-USAR) and continued his interest in the U.S. military by going out to sea on the USS Carrier Coral Sea, attending the christening of the USS Ronald Reagan and through his involvement with Marshall University's Army R.O.T.C. program. Funeral services will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 12, 2010 at the Jenkins United Methodist Church, Jenkins, KY. Burial will follow in Dixon Cemetery, Blackey, KY. Memorial contributions may be made to the Pilot Club of Huntington. Henson Mortuary, Barboursville is caring for the family. Condolences may be extended to the family at

“I remember Ron very well as I also grew up in McRoberts. Though a bit older, I recall seeing him around town several years. I'm sure he was a good man and will be missed by all with whom he came into contact. The family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Hello, My name is Caleb and I am one of Jehovah’s Witnesses. I’m very sorry for the death that you’ve experienced in your family recently. I’ve just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." We agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time.. please know that we are thinking of you and your family at this time! Thank you for your time, Sincerely, Caleb Aniol
