“ David,
I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. It was a pleasure to have met both Joshua and Sarah years ago when they would stop in at URS. I know based on our past discussions that even in this loss, you have the promise of seeing both Josh and Sarah again someday in Heaven! What a testimony both you and Sarah have that surely was shared with hundreds of people over the last several years. I have always said to many that there were no two parents that loved and cared for their son more than you and Sarah! Again, so sorry. May Jesus wrap his arms of strength and healing around you in the time ahead.

“ David, I really wish I could have had the chance to talk with Sarah in this life time. I will have to wait until the next. I really loved hearing your stories about her and how the two of you balanced each other out. While my heart aches for you knowing how you will miss her, I am grateful she is with our Lord and Savior and that she is with Josh again. You are in my prayers, my friend, and I am here for you if you need anything at all.

“ An angel without wings is what she was before Thursday! Sarah helped me get through some of the hardest days in my life when my son was first diagnosed. I will never forget that! So sorry that she had to leave so soon but one day we will all meet again on the other side!

“ David words can't express how sorry I am for your loss. We will continue to pray for you and your family. One thing I can say about Sarah is that when she loved someone she did it with her whole heart and was always supportive no matter how dumb my idea was. We enjoyed riding down the back country dirt roads down here in Pamlico NC. We would go down to the waters edge talk and laugh as we watched the waves roll in. We also enjoyed the bon fires especially during winter. She will surly be missed. I thank God above for the day we got to share together last year and it was a pleasure to meet you David. She will be missed and we have lost an angel but she is in peace and no longer in physical or emotional pain. May God give you the strength and peace to get you through.

“ Gran would giggle and whisper to Winston that Sarah and David brought her hot dogs, and candy. Sarah called her "my Gran". We all loved Sarah!
