“ Sharon, I miss so many things about you. Firstly. You would like up a room by your presence. I had cancer we talked. you always asked me how I was doing ,showing me a caring concerned ,a true feeling and care toward me.

I also live here at Highlawn Place. Sharon, was a meek lady. Never complained about herself or anything about here or negativity. Sharon didn't gossip, Sharon , a sweet voice never loud. I saw her during our walmart outings, wow she was excited, she was with her friends all awaiting on the little bus to take them there. Sharon, excited for just little things. The demeanor she had, her presence, her beautiful soul a treasure to always to carry in our memories. I was shocked and in complete i grief of my dear friend Sharon passing Sharon, I viewed your send off at the beautiful Heson and Kitchen, lovely songs and Pastor spoke of your earthly ways and presence. Your BEAUTIFUL HOME WITH JESUS YOU HAVE NO PAIN, NO TEARS, LOVE AND PEACE. Sharon I will see you in the Rapture

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. I was her caregiver for a few years and enjoyed every day I got to work with her. I was overjoyed to run into her at Walmart while she was out shopping not too long ago. She was such a loving caring person. Rest easy Sharon you will be missed.
