“ I honestly do not know what I will do without Renee. We met five years ago and have gotten very close, especially over the past year. We would talk three to four times a week and she always was the first to make sure I was doing well, and genuinely cared so much about me (as I did about her). She was the first to reach out to me when my father-in-law passed away a month ago, checked to see how my new job was on a daily basis and she always made me laugh- truly the best kind of friend to have. She was such a wonderful soul and this is a huge loss. I am not sure how we will get through this but we are going to all have to find a way somehow. Fly high Renee- love you!!
