“ To my brother, Terry - I have many good memories of us growing up and our occasional disagreements. The one that I laugh about the most is when I started high school, P J Jacobs. You were a Senior and I was a Freshman. You told me the first day of school, don't talk to me while we are in school, I am not your brother. I know he did not mean it, just a older sibling letting the younger one know his place.

You are going to be greatly missed. Your brother - Arlyn
