“ Mary, Connie, Terry Allen, I am so sorry for your tremendous loss. I know I have not seen your dad for a few years, but I will always remember his big smile (just like the picture you chose portrays) and how kind he always was.

I cannot imagine the pain you are feeling right now, but I know our God sure does. I pray his peace, comfort and strength for each of you.

Connie, I posted this on Facebook for all of our high school mates that are in my "friends" list and had them post it for any of their "friends " that are not listed in mine. This was the quickest way to get it out there.

You each will continue to be in my prayers and thoughts.

Love,

Leigh Ann

“ I worked with Terry at St. Mary's for many years. I really came to know him however after he retired. We loved to talk about WVU football. I just saw Terry two weeks ago and he was happy and smiling. He always was when I would run into him. God bless your family, I know you will miss him terribly.
