

Thomas Scott Davis

August 4, 1962 - March 18, 2010

Thomas Scott Davis, 47, of Barboursville, passed away Thursday, March 18, 2010, at his residence. He was born August 4, 1962, in Huntington, a son of the late Denver Charles & Elizabeth Ann Richards Davis. He was retired after 20 years of service from the U.S. Air Force from which he retired in 2006. He loved all sports, but his true passion was golf. During his years in the Air Force, he was stationed in South Carolina, England, and Boston. He played golf wherever and whenever he could and managed to make two "hole-in-one" during a lifetime of avid pursuit of the sport. His crowning achievement was to play the old course at Saint Andrews. In addition to his parents he was preceded by a brother Denver Charles Davis 111. Survivors include (2) Brothers Paul Davis- Barboursville, Dan Davis of Washington, D.C. He was a member of Bates Memorial Presbyterian Church where memorial services will be conducted on Saturday, April 10, 2010 at 2:00 P.M. at the Bates Memorial Presbyterian Church. Henson Mortuary is assisting the family with arrangements. Condolences may be extended to the family by visiting www.hensonmortuary.com.

“Offering my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Draw close to God in prayer, and the Bible promises that “he himself will sustain you.”—Psalm 55:22. Also a scripture that personally brings me comfort is at Isaiah 25:8).’- He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it].
