

Thomas J. Vargo

October 25, 1939 - January 15, 2012

Thomas J. (Tom) Vargo, 72, of Leon, WV, passed away January 15, 2012 at Huntington Health and Rehab Center. Tom was born October 25, 1939 in Huntington, WV. He was preceded in death by his father Joseph Vargo and mother Gladys (Keefer) Vargo. Tom graduated from Ceredo-Kenova High School and served in the Navy. He worked primarily in the auto industry including as a service writer for Harley Davidson of Huntington, Madison Smith Mercedes of Nashville, and Love Lexus Toyota in St. Albans. He also worked various jobs in construction, sales, and at the auto auction in Nitro. In his younger years, Tom enjoyed golf, tennis, and boating. He enjoyed living on his houseboat in Nashville and parties on the lake. After returning to West Virginia to be closer to his mother, he renewed some old friendships and enjoyed the company of his immediate family, especially his special niece, Abby Vargo of Leon. Tom was a lifelong bachelor, and is survived by his brothers Steve, Don, and David Vargo all of Huntington, WV, and many nieces and nephews. No service is planned. Henson Mortuary, Barboursville, WV is caring for the family. Online condolences may also be extended to the family by visiting www.hensonmortuary.com

“ I had read today 4/26/18 that the Pie Wagon was closing after 98 years in Nashville. This was one of Tom's favorite breakfast places. I worked with Tom back in the Madison Smith days as a service writer along with Tom. The Pie Wagon story made me think of him today and our memories of working together. I use to run into Tom on Pervy Priest Lake as he loved his house boat! Mark Price
