“ Mr. Stamper was my father-in-law. He was a man of valor, morales and respect. I always loved to cook him something special that he liked to eat and have him enjoy it. He was quite the character, with a bright smile and hearty chuckle. He loved tinkering with his electronics and was a movie addict. It is with honor and love I called him dad. Christy

“ Troy Stamper was my pawpaw. My entire childhood him and my grandma were always there. He was a good man. He was a perfect example of how to take care of things and value things in life. No matter the path my life has taken, my grandpa always stood out I guess as a role model of how to live a nice life and for that I'll always be thankful and have the upmost respect. I'll miss you pawpaw We Love You

*Troy was my first cousin. He was named in honor of my father, Troy Boyd, who was his uncle. I remember he and Lyla Faye visiting when I was a child. My two brothers and i would play with Troy Jr., and Wendell, and sister Jackie. Lyla would take us all swimming in the creek on old house creek. What fun times we had. He continued to visit with my parents until their death. Last time I got to see him was at moms funeral in 2002. Such a great man and had a wonder family. All my brothers and sisters send our deepest sympathy to all the family members. God Bless!

*Donnie he talked about you a lot. He had great memories and was fortunate at 95 he remembered his cousins. He so loved his family in Kentucky. The eight years my husband and I lived with him he would say he should take a trip to KY. I would tell him let's go and then he wet oils say no he will just keep the memories he had. I really miss him.

“ Troy Stamper was my Pawpaw, easiest way to say it, he was a good man. He taught me to value things in life and was just a good example for life. Grandpa you will be missed so much. I love you

“ One thing I will always remember of my grandpa was when I was little, I stayed at his and Grandma's house and after I got a bath he would always take me in their bedroom and give me one of his white pocket t-shirts (which was huge on me haha) to sleep in and then we would pick a movie to watch. I would always fall asleep on the couch and wake up to him carrying me into the bedroom where I slept and he would tuck me in and tell me goodnight and that he loves me. I have so many more, but that is one of the best memories. I love you pawpaw and you will deeply be missed! R.I.P. and give grandma a hug and a kiss from y'all's grandson.
