“ I have so many memories of all of us. Sharon, me, Sandy and you were always pretending to be the Lennon Sisters. We would play their music and we would perform for hours. We were cousins but also best friends as our parents were always together playing cards. I will miss you & me talking about the old days. Till we meet again. I Love You!

“ Around 1982-1984, I remember sitting with Gail at the playground at Ft Meade, MD watching Paul and Curtis play. Gail and I would do our laundry together on base, There was a Frogger game at the laundromat and Gail played while we did laundry. She was really good at Frogger! She was a great friend.

“ Tis a Fearful Thing
by Yehuda HaLevi (1075 – 1141)

*'Tis a fearful thing
to love what death can touch.
A fearful thing
to love, to hope, to dream, to be –
to be,
And oh, to lose.
A thing for fools, this,
And a holy thing,
a holy thing
to love.
For your life has lived in me,
your laugh once lifted me,
your word was gift to me.
To remember this brings painful joy.
'Tis a human thing, love,
a holy thing, to love
what death has touched.*
