“ There are so many memories that keep popping up since we heard about Warren. From the time he told us all good-bye at the railroad station at Prince on his way to "war", through all the "milk truck" times, to our last visit this past September with David and Callie. Warren leaves such a tremendous legacy, both professionally and personally. I'll bet, however, that his family was the accomplishment of which he was most proud. He was a remarkable example of a life well lived. All of you will be in our thoughts and prayers in the days, weeks, and months ahead.

“ Sue and I were very sad to hear of Warren's passing. We enjoyed getting to know him and Jean when we stayed with them while house hunting back in 2005.

“ You are all in our prayers. Hal May said to me on the death of my father that it was like being inducted into a club you really did not want to belong to. I found that to be so true. My dad has been gone for more than 17 years and there is not a day that passes that I dont think about him and miss him. Travel safely back to Greenville.

“ *What a man! He was an example of how a man can be used of God by simply being available and faithful. My life will forever be impacted by knowing the Pattons. Janet's and my heart grieve along with yours. As Christ followers we aren't saying goodbye, but we are saying see you later Mr. Patton. We are a little envious that you got home before us. Keep your ears open for any train wrecks and we will go with you on the search to find them. The entire Patton clan is in our prayers these days. We love you. “ We love Uncle Warren and Aunt Jean and have the highest respect for them both! Uncle Warren was a godly man and wonderful example and disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ. While his wisdom and loving charm will be greatly missed we are comforted in knowing he has heard the words from Jesus himself, "Well done thy good and faithful servant" Until we meet again... our hearts will grieve at your going home.
