“ Brian, I want you to know you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers about the loss of your dad. I had a retina appointment today, so that's why I am not at the funeral home with you all physically. Many wonderful memories Coach and I had with the beginning of the basketball program at Cabell Midland. God bless you and your family.

“ Grady and I shared some wonderful times together in the Wlidersness Ranger program and his care for the many young men who passed through that program was exemplary. He was a true friend and teammate, I'll miss him greatly. Gods bless you Grady.

“ *I had the great fortune to work with Grady for many years through the BSA Wilderness Ranger program. Grady put his heart and soul into that marvelous program, and I saw first-hand how he shaped so many young lives for the better. Grady was the consummate leader, coach and mentor; his Scouts were always curious, polite and well behaved on our field trips. Grady's many acts of service are incalculable. Although we only got together once a year, he took a personal interest in me and often called to catch up. Grady was truly one of the finest gentlemen I've ever known. It was an honor to call him a friend.
God bless the Brewer family.*
